TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great city of the world."

This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for application for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAN-KETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoff.
Box 243, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the

CORRESPONDENCE.

Gossip—Col. Alfred M. Waddell's Lecture—Freedman's Saving Bank—Fredrick Douglas Elected President—Summer Memorial—Governor Sheppard—Newspaper Correspondents, etc., etc.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16th, 1874.
HON. JOHN A. J. CRESSWELL.

The oldest member in point of service in General Grant's Cabinet, is the present Postmaster General, Mr. Cresswell. He was confirmed along with the first nominations sent to the Senate, where he received a unanimous vote. Since then down to the present day, he has been the chief executive officer of the department. The country well knows how faithful he has been to every trust, and how diligently and cautiously he has watched the best interests of the people and the exchequer.

Until Mr. Cresswell made war against the franking privilege, he was with the Republicans in both branches of Congress an extremely popular official, but when by experience as the head of the department, he saw the abuse of the franking privilege, he proceeded to eradicate the evil. He succeeded, but his success, which has been the country's gain, has caused him to be the head center for abuse from a certain class of Congressmen who depended more upon the franking privilege for success than their talent or energy. Well, like his friend, Gen. Grant, he stands about as well as the ordinary man—almost as well as Gen. Butler, who is called to abuse. Everything that could be done has been tried on to put Mr. Cresswell in a "fix," but most beautifully has he come out in every case unharmed. Mr. James Beck, of Kentucky, whose name is the synonym of abuse and villification, used some very harsh language about Mr. Cresswell when the "Franking" bill was under discussion week before last. Mr. Beck, whom nobody pays any attention to, remarked that Mr. Cresswell was the only cabinet officer for whom he had the utmost contempt. Every Congressman who heard that remark, took a long sigh when the words fell from his lips, and all seemed to say with one accord, "alas poor Beck, he hates the world." Mr. Cresswell done Mr. Beck like Gen. Elliott, of South Carolina, did Harris, of Virginia, he granted him the mercy and charity of his silence. What else should he do? Would it be proper for the P. M. G. to waste his ammunition on him when the sable member from South Carolina so lately were out the same day he did Harris? The Postoffice Department is as well managed as could be expected, and it is gratifying to the friends of the administration. Last year the tallest efforts were made to get Mr. Cresswell out of the Cabinet, but the President did in his case as he has done all along, refused to part with an official that no charges could be brought against. Mr. Cresswell is the only Southern man in the cabinet. So well and faithfully has he executed the duties of the position, that this in the minds of many to urge his name for the Vice Presidency in 1876. The South that so far has shown such unmistakable signs of true repentance by the support twice given to Grant and Colfax, and Grant and Wilson, will no doubt ask the second place on the next National Republican Ticket, for General Cresswell, whose fidelity to the party has been severely and sorely tried will be urged by his friends, whose names are legions for this honor. Fredrick Douglas, Sr., has been chosen President of the F. G. and T. Co. Bank.

Col. A. M. Waddell, the only Southern man that has been successful on the lecture stage here since the war, and who lately lectured to a large and cultivated audience of the leading people at the Capitol, has been requested to repeat "America before Columbus."

The entire (North Carolina) Congressional delegation, save Gen. Ransom, attended Mr. Sumner's funeral.

Gen. Rutherford, had Col. Forney, "cabalised" Friday. This is the old suit for libel instituted last year by the General against Col. Forney.

The Summer Memorial takes place at the (colored) Summer School building this evening. Rev. Alexander Crummell, L. L. D., D. D., will pronounce the eulogy.

A. C. Buell, the correspondent who sometime since sent a dispatch to the Detroit Free Press, in relation to Mr.

Chandler, of Michigan, in which he charged the Senator with being on the floor beastly drunk, has been expelled from the reporter's gallery. He who sends from Washington a false statement now had better look sharp. Congressmen and Senators have made up their minds to stand this lying and abuse no longer. Patience has ceased to be a virtue. You know that this style of writing abuse, slander and villification is a new invention. We had none of it fifteen years ago. It came in after the war. It is now in its place; but the matter is not too far, and instead of depending on courts of law for redress some have resolved to do as George Alfred Townsend did Mr. Walker, use the cane as an argument against it. The machine writers, who make a rule to slander all whom they dislike, take good care to jump on men whom they generally think are averse to physical demonstrations, but its getting so now that you can't tell who will or will not fight. I know of a correspondent here who asked an appointment of the P. M. General and, upon being refused, took up the cudgel of abuse forthwith, and so it is as to Senators, members and the general run of officials.

To-morrow is "Saint Patrick's day in the morning." The O'Grady's, O'Boyles, O'Callanons, O'Mearas, O'Tools, O'Dowds, O'Donohoes, O'Sheas, the Murphys, the Hollorans, the Caseys, the Fogartys, the Kelleys, the Mulligans, the Finnegan's and others, will be out in full dress of green and the harp of Erin.

The election for delegate from this District to Congress, that takes place this fall, will be a very exciting one. At this time there is no general agreement inside of the parties upon any one in particular, which is quite opposite to what was the prevailing sentiment two years ago. At that time they General Shipman was almost universally agreed upon by the Republicans; but the Republican party, though for the past eight years the controlling power in the District, is so much divided, that it is a very serious question whether or not they could now, or will be so situated four months hence to elect their man. Of one thing I am certain, that the better class of citizens of this District are growing heartily tired of the mob, local caucus political rule that has fastened itself upon the community. Debauchery, corruption and chicanery hath abiding places here in local politics that is bringing so much unwarranted disgrace upon the good name of the district that representative citizens of good intellectual people are discussing the propriety of arresting the further spread of the pestilence. The people of all shades of opinions and politics and color, who love the district and wish that it may multiply and prosper, are giving this matter serious consideration, and it need not be very astonishing to political party managers, nor any one else, if the end should result in the election of a delegate to Congress who could truthfully represent the District without claiming the support of any caucus or political connection. The property holders and tax payers of this District, should they strength, could with ease elect the man of their choice.

I will not be surprised, in the next election to find the leading colored men of the district polling their votes for some one of the honest professional. Public spirited citizens of this district, who will be selected as the standard bearer of all opposed to corruption and chicanery, and with such a man risk their chances. They had ought to loose by it, for ever since the early dawn of freedom in the district they have steadily stood up square for their patriotic friends, who in turn, have proven their best enemies. I took a peep into the room where the district Investigating Committee holds their sessions. I had some trouble to get in the door, a string of idle, worthless superannuated political hacks were strung about the entrance. All knew something about corruption—and all were anxious for the investigation for two reasons, the prime one being the per diem that would be paid as witnesses, the next being that the leaders of the movement, nearly all of them, had been turned out of office by Governor Shipman, and now in return, they would now keep a case that would end in destroying him and the district government. Such a tough, hard and Gipsy looking gang of "hooligans" you never seen. Their presence, their swearing, their spewing of ambia, their general degraded conduct, from day to day at the Capital is a living royal disgrace. All this is a war against Governor Sheppard, because he don't see things just like all these chronic dead heads and political poll evils. It is a good thing for the district that they have a man like their present Governor, who following in the wake of the President, neither looks this way nor that way, but goes ahead, discharging his duty. Take a note in this district next week, ask the popular voice, will you sustain Sheppard? and two-thirds, yes four-fifths will answer "We do." This investigation, which will cost the taxpayers of the country $25,000, will result in a verdict favorable to the Board of Public Works. Investigation, one after another have been instituted here for the past three years, always by the "outs" and their disgruntled and the result has been favorable to the authorities. The mistake Congress made was in granting these growlers, grumblers and sore heads an opportunity to "grab" per diem and fatten on innocent people's money.

All the little bobtail nanny goat, rag muffin sniffers, that can be produced, are summoned as witnesses, and not a single one, thus far, has given the committee, or the disinterested citizens, the least encouragement, in the belief that there has been gross mismanagement in the affairs of the District, under the new regime, nor has one of the identical citizens failed to put in his claims for witness fees. Oh no, that is one thing for which they are willing to be called martyrs. "CYRUS."

Maffit, committee, for an invitation to be present at the supper given by the Wil. Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, at their Hall next Monday night, in honor of their 5th anniversary.

ACCEPTED.—The committee appointed by the County Commissioners from among their number, visited the new work house this morning to look through the various apartments and to see if it had been built according to contract. The committee being satisfied with the building, accepted it from the contractors, Messrs. Mathis & Co.

The old work house is being pulled down and the ground leveled.

The present building is much better adapted to the wants of an institution of the kind; it is provided with a comfortable hospital, ward for females and suitable apartments for the guard. The prisoners will be conveyed to their new apartments to-day and furnished with new blankets, clothing, etc.; they are dressed in a blue and white plaid jeans, and are numbered with red figures on their backs to designate them.

How HE KNEW IT.—Yesterday morning the servant of a gentleman residing on Market street, went out early to market and bought a few live chickens, among which was a rooster. These were put in a coop in the yard, and the male of that purchase resented his imprisonment by loud and defiant crows.

About eight o'clock, a boy who was passing, suddenly stopped and listened at the crowing. After a minute or two he went into the yard, and told Mrs.

— that the night before a number of fowls had been stolen from him, and among them the rooster which was then crowing so lustily. He was asked how he knew. "By the way he crows," was the reply. Further investigation was made, and it was found that the chickens purchased an hour before belonged to the boy. He actually had discovered his stolen fowls by the crowing of the cock.

For the Post.

Is Wilmington Alive to Her Interest?

Let us see. We have a population of say 20,000; deduct half for the females, for the aged and those who are afflicted with "dry-rot," and we probably have a willng working population of 15,000, men, women and children.

Where are they, and what are they doing? is the question, that most concerns economists. It is in fact of all others the question. At the railroad shops, Hart & Bailey's, Lord's and the five saw mills there are perhaps 500; at stores and about the wharfe, 200; stevedors and laborers, 600; carpenters, masons and others, 350; whose combined wages will hardly exceed $2,500 daily the year round, add 50 per cent. and we do not employ 2,500, which is equivalent to saying, for every one at work, six others are standing around. Can our city be expected to grow so long as this continues? Is it to be wondered Money loaned a bank; at 8 per cent.

must of necessity be loaned by the bank at a correspondingly high rate, to which must be added tax and other bank expenses, which are enormous, thus forcing a still larger rate of interest from the borrower. Money loaned at a high rate is rarely secured—so rarely, indeed, that the Sheriff's of-icers stalk among our merchants like a very pestilence until the cry is "Who next?" You have confidence in the bank which pays you 8 per cent. for your money. Have you confidence in people who go into your bank and take away your money, bearing 12, 15 or 18 per cent.—the interest they pay—behind, when a ten-year-old boy can take a slate and pencil and figure a pad lock on the door of any man who pays such interest.

Do you ask what you should do TO BE SAVED?

Put your money into a cotton factory. It will pay you certainly twice 8 per cent. It will save you a very large proportion of $12,000 tax to support the paupers—it will put money into the hands of those whose average earning now is twenty-five cents a day, the very people on whom the success of your (all) business most depends.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year
THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsome Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or unstable interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collected series of pictures, and rare specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.
The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art circles of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are considered the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly giving place to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the beautiful and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will repre-duce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE are afforded a trifling cost, enjoy in their own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.
The masterly and beautiful illustrations of by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.
The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs by the most successful artists of our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.
Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos.
The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose growth and development was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent the grandest and most beautiful scenery in the White Mountains New Hampshire, the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in the pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked in the same manner, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

"NEWARK, N. J., Sept 20th, 1873.
Messrs. JAMES BUTTON & Co.
Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs of the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.
(Signed) THOS. MORAN.
These chromos are in every sense American.
They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal, if no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can give. I feel that I have any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE.
I am, therefore, glad to see them put into the hands of our countrymen, and I am proud to see them appreciated by the enterprising and patriotic publishers of THE ALDINE.
If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 12 x 30 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.
For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by the ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or paid by the local canvasser, and the responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the signature of the local canvasser, J. B. Jones & Co., Publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to

THE SUN.
WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND
DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.
It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, and it is when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, legible, and interesting manner.
It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.
It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.
It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive news in agricultural topics regularly appear in its agricultural department.
It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.
It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions.
It has no fear of knives, and asks no favors from its supporters.
Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.
One dollar a year will secure it to any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.
We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 25 cents a month, or $6.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address: THE SUN, 25 N. 3rd St., New York City.

largely represented in the pages of LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages,
THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Originals, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES
Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer), Erckmann-Chatriain, Turgenev, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs. Farr (author of "Dorothy Fox"), Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the gether with an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE AMERICAN LIVING AGE, and because it is sufficiently indicated by the following OPINIONS.

"Republishes the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—The Advocate, Chicago.

stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly choose 'The Living Age'—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev.
Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Philadelphia Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is ad-
